

TAKE SECTIONAL X-COUNTRY HONORS

Red Bank C., Noden stay unbeaten

Hilary Noden of Hopewell Valley and the Red Bank Catholic team remained undefeated as the NJSIAA girls' sectional cross-country championships were held yesterday at three sites around the state.

Miss Noden, who has never lost a high school cross-country race, won the Central Jersey title at Buccleuch Park in 11:26.2, while Red Bank Catholic held off a threat by North Hunterdon to its equally pristine team record with a 40-76 victory.

At each sectional, the first 15 finishers and the top five teams qualified for next Saturday's all-group championship at Holmdel County Park.

Memorial of West New York made it a perfect day at Garret Mountain by adding the girls' title to its earlier Group

4 boys crown in a 55-58 upset of Saddle Brook.

Michelle Guido of Paramus Catholic took individual honors, beating Lucille Pasciolla of Saddle Brook by 60 yards in 11:57. Rosemarie Gonzalez led the Memorial team in third, followed immediately by Leslie Chiocco.

TEAM SCORE — Memorial (West New York) 55, Saddle Brook 58, Paramus Catholic 117, Wayne Hills 123, Palisades Park 103, Hackensack 227, Ridgewood and Pasack Hills 232.

Nobiliary wins International was eventually wound up eighth, beating only the Japanese horse, Tsukisamu Homare. Later, it was reported that Dahlia came out of the race lame, having injured a stifle.

The rider of the runner-up, Jean-Claude Desaint, lodged an objection against the winner, claiming interference at the top of the stretch and again approaching the finish line. Films showed that Nobiliary did bear out slightly just before the wire but the stewards whom are partial to Dahlia.

"Dahlia has always been a sentimental favorite of mine," said Hunt afterward. "But Nobiliary, after all is the only filly in 63 years to finish in the money in the Epsom Derby (she was second), and we knew she'd like a course that had a little give to it."

Hunt pointed out that Nobiliary benefitted from the weights, carrying only 117 pounds, seven fewer than Dahlia and 10 less than Snow Knight. Zilber, however, felt the outcome was influenced more by the injury to Dahlia alertly and then, when challenged by Shady Character, making it clear he didn't intend to give up the lead. After that, his only problem was holding off Comtesse De Loir.

"I glanced back in the stretch and could see a horse closing," said Hawley. "All I could do was try and keep her going and she did that herself. She finished as strong as she started."

Hawley, ironically, had ridden Dahlia in the Canadian International two weeks ago and was criticized by Zilber rode Nobiliary home while Desaint on Comtesse De Loir frantically went to the whip, half-turning in the saddle with every windmill-like stroke.

Earlier, Comtesse De Loir lost a shoe in the post parade, delaying the start 10 minutes while a blacksmith tacked it back on.

"I think that helped Nobiliary," said Hawley. "She had broken out a bit on the way to the gate but then cooled out during the delay."

Nobiliary will now be shipped to Florida where she will be campaigned this winter.
