

Nancy stays perfect with Group 3 romp

Nancy Seeger of Roxbury continued her perfect cross-country season as she ran away with the NJSIAA Group 3 championship yesterday at Holmdel County Park.

Miss Seeger had a 200-yard lead on Michelle Guido of Paramus Catholic as she turned in the day's best time of 18:02.1. She had earlier won the Eastern title at Van Cortlandt Park, as well as several invitation meets.

Team honors in Group 3 went, as usual, to Red Bank Catholic, which has never lost an NJSIAA cross country meet on any level, sectionals, group or all-group. This time, it was frosh Maura Taylor who rebounded quickly from a knee injury to lead her team in third place at 18:53.

Brick had a surprisingly easy time taking the Group 4 team title from Toms River North, 59-105, also reversing a sectional result. Jeanne Fox and Wanda Darling led the Brick team in ninth and 10th places.

Bernards, which also won a boys' title, took the Group 2 girls race with a comfortable 47-115 margin over Point Pleasant Borough. Cathy Stone of Vernon won the race in 19:21.4 with Caroline McCoy of Caldwell 80 yards back.

In the Group 1 race, Judy Ruff of Highland Park defeated Renee De-Feo of Clayton by 40 yards in 19:00.5, as Mater Dei easily repeated as team champion, 55-94.
