Nagy, Domingues capture crowns

By GRANT EDWARDS

Newark East Side won its first state sectional cross country championship yesterday at Warinanco Park, Elizabeth, by defeating Morristown, 38-62, in North Jersey, Section 2, Group 4 competition.

Andy Jacob of Westfield won the race in 16:07 but East Side had the next two finishers. Mario Branco second in 16:32 and Jose Barros third in 16:37. After that came Fernando Santos ninth in 17:02, Paul Santos 10th in 17:05 and Manny Santos, Fernando's brother, 15th in 17:22.

East Side was the only Essex County team winner in the eight team competitions at Warinanco Park but Madeline Nagy of Caldwell and Rosa Domingues of East Side both won individual championships.

Nagy ran away with the Group 2 race in 19:12 and finished 250 yards ahead of Vicki Scozzafava of Boonton. Caldwell, however, failed to qualify for Saturday's group meet at Holmdel County Park when it placed sixth to winning Springfield with 111 points.

Domingues had better fortune, leading East Side to a third-place finish in Group 4 with a 20-yard victory over Sarah Gray of Morristown in 19:57. Morristown won the team crown, 44-53, over Columbia of South Orange-Maplewood, which had Jim Dunn, Edna Neivert and Lisa Morgan sweep the places between fourth and sixth. Dunn ran 20:03.

Newark Vailsburg had both of its fine girl runners, city champion Lisa Williams and Artina Braithwaite, down with illness and was unable to field a full team. But the boys qualified with a fourth-place finish in Group 3 behind winning Cranford. Anthony Thomas was fourth for Vailsburg in 16:37.

The fastest individual times of the day at Warinanco were turned in by Morris County runners. John Hayes of Randolph won the Group 3 boys' race in 16:06, a second faster than Andy Jacob of Westfield in Group 4. Noel LeFrancis of Wgst Morris of Chester won a second straight Group 3 girls' race in 18:48.

Morris County teams won five of the titles, Chatham Township in Group 1 boys, Dover in Group 2 boys, Kinnelon in Group 1 girls, West Morris in Group 3 girls and Morristown in Group 4 girls.

Kearny won its first North Jersey, Section 1, Group 4 championship at Garret Mountain, West Paterson, defeating Ridgewood, 56-62. Wesley Coke of Paterson Kennedy won the race in 16:13. Frank Sroczynski led Kearny in sixth place at 16:36.

In other sectional action around the state, Janet Smith of North Edison, Andy Martin of North Hunterdon in Clinton and Toni Ann Angione of Bergenfield set course records. Smith and Martin both ran at Mercer County Park in West Windsor. Smith won the Group 4 girls' race for a fourth time in 17:04 and Martin the Group 3 boys' race in 15:18. Angione handed Missy Duchini of Wayne Valley her first loss of the season in the North Jersey, Section 1, Group 3 race at Garret Mountain, West Paterson, running 18:10.6.
