Barrett, Kolb key CBA to 9th title

Juniors Bill Barrett and Bill Kolb finished in a virtual dead heat in 16:17 to lead Christian Brothers Academy of Lincroft to a repeat victory in the 27th New Jersey Catholic Track Conference Cross Country Championships yesterday at Warinanco Park, Elizabeth.

CBA finished five runners in the first eight places for a 22-60 victory over Bergen Catholic of Oradell. It was the ninth major victory of the current season for coach Tom Heath's team, ranked No. 1 in the state by The Star-Ledger.

Barrett and Kolb ran together for the full 3.2 miles and only the rule against dead heats prevented them from linking hands to indicate a tie at the finish. The official nod went to Barrett.

Bergen Catholic had the next two finishers in Harry Carle, who ran 16:21, and Dennis McNerney, who ran 16:28.
