Jeanne Radwanski of St. Mary's of South Amboy crosses the finish line in 20:52 to place second in Parochial B meet yesterday at Holmdel Park

ISSUED ONE TWO ONE PAUL VI IN 1983 AND 16:51.

Delbarton School of Morristown, which won the Parochial A championship in 1981, took the Parochial B championship from Morris Catholic of Denver, 41-52. Defender Paul Rabon of Bishop Eustace of Pennsauken won the race in 17:28.6 but Delbarton had the next three places with Kevin O'Brien, Bob Kuik and Ken Feller.

Joining the two Bernards teams are the North Hunterdon girls as repeat winners were Lawrence in the Group 2 boys race, Holmdel in Group 2 girls and Mater Dei of New Monmouth in Parochial B girls.

Lawrence defeated Somerville, 45-57, in a race won by Andy O'Donnell of Hopatcong in 16:32. Holmdel also topped Somerville, 86-110, in the race won by Nagy, Sue Ashmore led Mater Dei to a 35-60 defeat of St. Mary's of South Amboy, winning her race in 20:35.8.

Leslie Gale led St. John Vianney to its third state championship in five years. The earlier ones were in Group 2. Gale won the race by 100 yards from Rene Murphy of DePaul of Wayne in 19:58.6. Missy Vinci was ninth for St. John Vianney in 20:51 and Meg Lenihan 11th in 21:06.

Newark on Weiss

Steve Weiss, a junior halfback, scored four touchdowns, including a 63-yard run and a 65-yard reception from Joe Marino, to lead Newark Academy past Morris-Towam-Beard, 34-0, in the season wrap up for both yesterday in Livingston.

Weiss rushed for 203 yards to boost his season total to 1,185. He scored in the first half on runs of four and seven yards to complete drives of 70 and 85 yards for Newark Academy (7-2).

In the third quarter, Weiss had his

Coskren victories lead West Morris to title

Karen Coskren won three individual events and the all-around to lead West Morris of Chester to the championship of the girls' North Jersey, Section 2 gymnastics meet yesterday in Springfield.

West Morris finished with 101.10 points. Scotch Plains was second with 99.45 and Hanover Park third with 99.10.

Coskren won the uneven parallel bars with 9.40, the balance beam with 9.0 and the floor exercise with 9.20. She finished with 36.50 in the all-around to defeat Jessica Strunk of Whippany Park, who was second in three events. Susan Wahl of Randolph won the vault with 9.25.

Pennington as Picarel

Pennington School, sparked by the passing and running of Pat Picarel, scored a 20-8 victory over Montclair-Kimberly in the season finale for both teams yesterday in Montclair.

Picarel, who ran for one touchdown and passed for another, picked up 59 yards on 14 rushes and another 59 by completing five of 12 passes.

The effort offset a line passing effort by Mark McGowan of Montclair-Kimberly (15-2). McGowan completed 13 of 21 passes for 218 yards and one touchdown. Dave Hutchison caught four passes for 103 yards and Rob Leonardo had four for 82.

Picarel intercepted a pass early in the game and gave Pennington (6-2-1) the ball at the Montclair-Kimberly

Mossbrook ma

By GORDON PAUL

Senior Laura Mossbrook of Holy Spirit of Abscon will play in familiar surroundings when she makes a third bid for a girls' state singles tennis crown at 1:30 today at the Inman Racquet Club in Edison.

Mossbrook (20-0), frustrated in two previous championship attempts by Lisa Rosamaldi of Watchung Hills of Warren, will face 14-year-old freshman Danielle Klurman (24-0) of North Edison. Klurman ended Rosamaldi's bid for a record third straight title when she scored a 6-0, 6-2 victory in the semifinals Friday at Inman. Mossbrook made it to the final with a 7-5 (7-3), 6-0 victory over Annemarie Watson of Voorhees.

Mossbrook has lost just three matches in four years. She bowed to eventual state champion Eileen

Fallon of St. Mary's of Sou in 1980 and to Rosar finals.

"I don't feel nearly year," said Mossbrook. "L win."
