

Domingues sparks East Side to X-c title

By GRANT EDWARDS

Rosa Domingues led Newark East Side to a 41-45 victory over Columbia in the North Jersey, Section 2, Group 4 cross-country championships yesterday in Warinanco Park in Elizabeth.

Domingues, timed in 19:24, sliced 33 seconds off her 1983 winning time to outrun freshman Pam Hoover of Roxbury by 40 yards. Columbia had freshman Christine Grant finish third in

GIRLS' X-COUNTRY

19:38 and junior Kim Dunn fifth in 19:52, but East Side placed its other four runners between eighth and 13th places to clinch its first sectional title. Bernards and North Hunterdon of Clinton, the state's top two teams in The Star-Ledger Top 10, scored easy victories in the Central Jersey meet in Hamilton. Bernards won its fourth straight sectional Group 1 championship on a 16-75 margin over Henry Hudson of Atlantic Highlands and North Hunterdon took its sixth in the Group 3 race, 16-63, from Voorhees of Glen Gardner.

Karen Ahern led the Bernards parade, finishing in 18:29 70 yards ahead of teammate Laurie Day. Jeanne LaPlaca did the honors for North Hunterdon, finishing in 17:49 10 yards ahead of teammate Jodie Bilotta for the fastest time of the four winners at the Central Jersey meet.

In the other races in Hamilton, Randi Engle won in Group 4 in 18:28 150 yards ahead of Chris Baldes of Manalapan Beth Starr of Lawrence finished in 17:59 200 yards ahead of Lauren Jelm of Hoimdel in Group 2. Manalapan took the Group 4 team title and Hoimdel won for the third straight year in Group 2.

Madeline Nagy of Caldwell was the fastest in the four races at Warinanco Park, winning in 18:51 in the Group 2 race for the second straight year. Terry Reinman of Mendham won the Group 3 race in 19:22 and Meghan Lee of West Morris of Long Valley the Group 3 race in 19:22.

Morris County teams won all the other team titles at Warinanco. Randolph scored in Group 3, Boonton in Group 2 and Kinnelon in Group 1.

Tom Ann Mangione of Bergenfield set a course record of 18:04 to win the Group 3 race by 150 yards from Jen Vanforn of Wayne Valley in the North Jersey, Section 1, Group 3 meet at Garret Mountain, West Paterson. Wayne Valley easily repeated as team champion, 30-67, over Old Tappan. Margaret Scturo led Ridgewood to the Group 4 championship by winning the race in 18:32 by 200 yards from Jermine Jones of Hackensack. Michelle Forzani paced Dumont to the Group 2 title when she won the race in 20:07 and Vicki Gusciora did the same for Saddle Brook in Group 1 in 20:31.

Kelly McDonnell paced Toms River East to the South Jersey, Group 4 championship at Clearview in Mullica Hill, winning the race in 19:21 by 150 yards from teammate Jean Nutone. Toms River East finished with a 28-63 margin over Brick.
