

Arts captures 3rd straight title; Becky's Bury wins Group 4

BY PAUL FABBRI, MIKE G. MORREALE and JAMES LAMBERT

Shawnee, the No. 1 team in the Star-Ledger Girls' Cross-Country Top 10, overcame the absence of its best runner, Julie Goldstein, to outrun Toms River North, the defending sectional champion and the state's No. 3 team, 40-53, in the NJSSAA South Jersey Group 4 cross-country championships yesterday at Mt. Holly Tech.

In the team championships at other venues: Westfield took the Group 4 title, Morris Knolls won in Group 3, Boonton took the Group 2 championship and Arts repeated in Group 1 in North Jersey, Section 2.

The Shore dominated team action in Central Jersey. Marlboro won in Group 4, Red Bank Catholic in Group 3 and Mater Dei Group 1. Somerville prevented a Shore sweep by taking the Group 2 title.

In North Jersey, Section 1, Kearny came away with the Group 4 crown, Northern Highlands prevailed in Group 3, Kittanning won in Group 2 and Palisades Park took Group 1.

Krista Ferrara of Vineland, the state champion in the 800-meter run, made up a 10-meter deficit over the final 800 to overtake Liz Moore of Shawnee and win the race in 20:15.

No. 6 Paul VI of Haddon Township won a second straight South Jersey Group 3 title although Julie Schick of second-place Mainland won the individual race in 20:20.

Sophomore Becky Leon continued her season-long roll by winning the Group 2 race in 20:21 to lead Cinnaminson to the team title.

Janet Rue of Pitman won the Group 1 race in 20:25 while Haddonfield won the team crown.

Westfield, on the performances of three first-year cross-country runners, outran Livingston, 66-78, to win its first team title in Group 4 at the North Jersey, Section 2 meet at Warinanco Park in Elizabeth.

Aimee Stout, fifth in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles in last spring's Meet of Champions, led the Westfield pack by finishing eighth in 21:45. Heather Bury, with a push from second-place finisher Missy Abrams of Roxbury, won the Group 4 race in 20:00.

No. 9 Morris Knolls, last year's Group 4 champion, overcame the absence of two of its top runners, including No. 1 Danielle Cuoco, to replace defending Phillipsburg as the Group 3 champion, 46-47.

Christine Engel, fourth at last week's Morris County race, exploded from the starting line and extending her lead to 200 meters over the final mile to win the Group 3 race in 19:46.

Melissa Zobel, whose season started with a 10th-place finish in the D race at the Shore Coaches meet, won the Group 2 race in 20:22 for her second consecutive crown. Boonton ran by Dover, 46-76, to its second consecutive title.

Cathy O'Brien of Morris Catholic won the Group 1 race in 20:46. Arts won a third consecutive championship in Group 1.

Monal Choksy kept her three-year state unbeaten streak alive by winning the Central Jersey, Group 4 race in 19:38, but Marlboro beat out No. 10 Bridgewater at Holmdel County Park in Holmdel. Marianne Livingston of Red Bank added a sectional title to her Monmouth and Shore Conference titles by winning the Group 3 race in 19:59. But No. 5 Red Bank Catholic edged Ocean Township, 55-89, for its second
