

Manning surprises in Group 3; Miller captures Group 2 crown

By JIM LAMBERT

North Hunterdon sophomore Colleen Manning pulled off a shocking victory in Group 3 and Somerville's Cathy Miller made a bold move with a mile to go to win the Group 2 crown to spark their schools for the Central Jersey team titles at the NSIAA sectional cross-country championships yesterday.

Also, Central Jersey at Holmdel County Park, Group 4 Middletown South and Group 1 Pingry were winners.

In the North Jersey, Section 2 meet at Warninco Park in Elizabeth, Group 4 Westfield, Group 3 West Morris, Group 2 Dover and Group 1 Morris Catholic were the winners.

In the North Jersey, Section 1 meet at Garret Mountain in West Paterson, Group 4 Ridgewood, Group 3 Wayne Valley, Group 2 Kittatinny and Group 1 Palisades Park won team titles.

In the South Jersey meet at Westampton Tech, Group 4 Shawnee, Group 3 Paul IV, Group 2 Bishop Eustace and Group 1 Haddonfield were winners.

North Hunterdon, ranked fourth in The Star-Ledger Girls' Cross-Country Top 10 and the winner of six All-Groups championships in the '80s, received a superb effort from Manning, who surprised Red Bank Catholic's Mary Pat Erickson by winning the Central Jersey, Group 4 race in 19:44. Erickson was second in 19:49. North Hunterdon finished with 59 points, 32 ahead of second-place Red Bank Catholic.

In the girls' group 1 race, Pingry's fifth runner, Kim McIntyre, 16th in 23:09, bettered Mater Dei's fifth runner, Sharon Jergens, by five places for the deciding points in a 54-56 victory. The individual title went to Mary Newman of Highland Park in 20:36:51.

Miller, who unleashed a strong finish over the last mile to break free from a pack of three, won the Group 2 race in 20:51 to lead Somerville past Delaware Valley, 85-93, for the team championship.

As expected, fifth-ranked Middletown South, which picked up a surprising performance from Ann Simonetti, won the Group 4 title. Megan Smith led the way by taking third in 20:28. Colleen O'Boyle was sixth in 20:51 and Simonetti, normally the fifth or sixth runner for Middletown South, picked up key points by crossing fourth for her team and 14th overall in 21:34.

It was business as usual for Bridgewater's Monal Chokshi as she continued her path toward a record fourth state cross-country championship by winning the Group 4 title in 19:32. That was the best girls' time of the day in the state.

In North Jersey, Section 2, West Orange's Heather Bury won her second straight Group 4 race in 19:35, the best time in the section. Randolph beat Westfield, 44-66, to win its first Group 4 crown in eight years. Valerie Levy finished third for Randolph in 21:18 while the efforts of Shannon McGinn (14th in 22:17) and Rayna Huber (15th in 22:22) made the difference. A week ago, Randolph finished third in the Iron Division at the Iron Hills Conference championships.

Mt. Olive sophomore Jackie Coscia began to move out from the shadow of graduated superstar teammate Christine Engel by winning the Group 3 race in 20:05. West Morris edged Mt. Olive, 46-51, for the team title, getting a superb race from Robyn Poetsch, third in 20:58.

Lauren Whitehead won the Group 2 race in 21:01. Over out-
